10-13-88: DET. PARSELLS briefed me concerning the [REDACTED] GORDON MACRAE situation. We discussed the possibility of a body wire. We were recently denied such a request by the AG's office, in a very similar case. I suggested he call and request one anyway. I advised Parsells, that MACRAE fit the pedophile profile, and I suspected there might exist a problem. I suggested [REDACTED] continue meeting MacRae, under close police supervision. I have known [REDACTED] for several years. Although he has been truthful with me, his credibility is lacking. I mentioned the [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] situations to Parsells. Additionally, Off. MCLAUGHLIN has been monitoring this situation. We had discussed MacRae's involvement with area youth this past summer. Mclaughlin has since filed supplements to this case, and investigating. It was clear, that this situation warranted continued investigative efforts, whereas many troubled and vulnerable youths are frequently referred to the Monadnock Substance Abuse Council (Gordon MacRae).

10-14-88: I spoke with PAUL MONTGOMERY, reporter for the Keene Sentinel. I recalled once seeing a Monadnock Profile featuring MacRae. Montgomery commented that he knew someone, who knew something odd -- about MacRae. I asked him to speak with that person, and express my eagerness to interview them. Montgomery obtained a copy of the profile article, dated 12-29-84.

10-17-88: I spoke with JSO -- EMMETT DWYER concerning this matter. DWYER has been working with [REDACTED] (who is currently at Lake Shore Hospital in Nashua for drug/alcohol treatment). [REDACTED] is a sexual offender. DWYER is attempting to get him into a special program in Minnesota. Recalling [REDACTED] past relationship with MacRae, including frequent meals at the Colony Mill, numerous social visits, etc., I briefed DWYER on the [REDACTED] development. DWYER, a former abuse investigator is very sensitive to these matters and capable at assessing if interview timing is appropriate. He will consider speaking with [REDACTED] should the setting be appropriate.

10-21-88: DWYER informs me that he learned from DCYS worker Judy Henderson, that MACRAE may be on -- or is about to be placed upon, the sexual offenders list. For reasons unclear to me, HENDERSON was unwilling to share further information about this matter, however DWYER learned that NHSP TR. JIM KELLEY was involved in the investigation. I attempted to contact KELLEY, however he was unavailable. At 17:00 Hrs., I informed McLaughlin of the developments, and requested he contact KELLEY (who was working that evening).

10-28-88: McLaughlin advised me that he had received a copy of the report from Kelley, which suspected MACRAE of being involved in mutual masturbation with a patient at Spofford Hall. DCYS worker Syliva Gale of the Concord office was still working the case, and was very interested in our investigation. GALE advised MCLAUGHLIN, that MACRAE'S background is suspect. MACRAE was transferred to NH from FLA. It was alleged, that MACRAE was sexually involved with two boys, one who later was mutilated and murdered. GALE did not know the jurisdiction, or if MACRAE was in fact a suspect. MCLAUGHLIN sent a teletype to FLA requesting information from any agency familiar with the circumstances as described by GALE.

CASE: [REDACTED]

10-31-88 09:20 hrs: In response to the teletype, a response was received from Det. JACK HOFFMAN, Hollywood, Fla., 305-921-3361. HOFFMAN stated that he was still investigating a 1981 murder case of national attention; that of ADAM WALSH. This case resulted in the formation of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, and was featured in a movie "The Adam Walsh Story". HOFFMAN explained, although serial killer HENRY LEE LUCAS confessed to the murder (and dozens more), he was unable to provide any evidence (such as the location of certain missing body parts). His confession is not considered credible -- in this particular case. Others have confessed as well -- all confessions to date lacking credibility.

HOFFMAN stated that on the morning of the abduction from a shopping mall, ADAM WALSH and his mother visited a Catholic Church. They met with a priest to discuss tuition for the school year. HOFFMAN did not know the name of the priest, or if there was a connection. I provided him with our information, which he will check into.

10:15 Hrs: Det. Sgt. Michael Thompson of Pensacola, FLA called. THOMPSON stated he had arrested a priest about 8 years ago, following an undercover homosexual sting operation. The priest had initially refused to identify himself. THOMPSON described his the priest from memory -- a very similar description to that of MACRAE. He will research and send the file and mug-shot.

Statement of GORDON JAMES MACRAE as given to Detective Sgt. Hal G. Brown and Det. James F. McLaughlin on 11-14-88, at 18:51 hrs., at the Keene Police Department. I have been fully advised and understand my rights. I wish to give the following statement concerning my activities involving some area persons and solicitation for sexual matters.

My name is GORDON JAMES MACRAE. I am 35 years old. I presently live at 50 Summit Rd., Keene NH. I am currently executive director of Monadnock Region Substance Abuse Council. I have a Master of Divinity degree from t. Mary University, Baltimore, Md.

I came in today aware that there was an investigation and an allegation of endangering. I was confronted with information that I engaged in sexual suggestive conversation with a minor, that may have led to a sexual incident. That minor is [REDACTED]. The conversation took place in my home, while [REDACTED] was assisting me with the repairs of some furniture. I dont remember the exact date or time, but it was late last spring of 1988. The conversation denoted prostitution. There was no sexual incident. It appears that my conversation was to solicit a sexual incident. I'm not sure what I would have done, had [REDACTED] accepted.

This has occurred to a lesser extent to two other youths, who I identify as [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]. This also occurred with [REDACTED] aged 19. Also to a lesser extent and as in the other cases, there was no sexual incident.

Case Number

During the summer months, I met [redacted] who worked for me through a family owned business. During this time he spoke often to me about a close adult friend of his named Gordon MacCrea. I knew MacCrea from answering a few police complaints at the St Bernard Church. At the time MacCrea was there as a priest. I can recall speaking to him about his past occupation. He told me he worked as a detective involved with youth crimes, in the city of Baltimore, Md.. He left there and joined the priesthood. Having grown up catholic I have always associated a priest with truthfulness. However when speaking with MacCrea, I had an uneasy feeling about his credibility, regardless of his trappings.

MacCrea would leave his place of work at will and appear at [redacted] work place with a cold drink and snack for the boy. [redacted] would then sit in MacCrea's vehicle and spent his break with him and make other plans. When [redacted] was done for the day he would call MacCrea who would then leave work regardless of the hour and pick the boy up. [redacted] schedule was irregular and MacCrea seemed to accomodate at the slightest whim. MacCrea worked as a councilor at an alcohol and drug abuse center located on Route 32 in Swanzey, NH. [redacted] told me that MacCrea had been an alcoholic and left the church temporarily to help others with their addictions. As I worked with [redacted] I asked him a number of questions about MacCrea's questionable behavior. What I learned caused me some concern because they pointed towards pedophilic behavior on the part of MacCrea. [redacted] described MacCrea as both a friend to himself and to his family. He said they did a number of activities together after work/school. [redacted] also said he had been to MacCrea's apartment a number of times.. [redacted] worked until he was scheduled to attend a Boy scout camp located near Manchester, NH. He was going to be staying at the camp for a number of weeks. I asked him if he thought he might become homesick. He contered by stating, MacCrea was going to travel to the camp to make periodic visits.

[redacted] father (step) is [redacted] who works at the Cheshire County Jail and as the truancy officer for Unit 29.

His mother works for the [REDACTED] real father lives in [REDACTED] still keeps in touch and has recently traveled to his fathers home for a visit. [REDACTED] is a likable young man who is small for his age. He is 14 years old but only weights about 98 pounds. He recently became involved with the Police through his short lived friendship with [REDACTED] went to JV court for criminal mischief as a result of throwing a rock from a moving school bus. This rock struck a windshield of a car which was damaged. [REDACTED] was then directed to the earn-it program. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] also spoke about a young man who broke into MaCrea's apartment and stole some of his blank checks. These checks were later forged and cashed. [REDACTED] MaCrea did not report the crime which was uncovered when the checks were cashed. A co-defendant in the check cashing case stated the crime was motivated by what MaCrea might have done to the kid who stole the checks. This subject was identified as [REDACTED], who when interviewed said, he had a long relationship with MaCrea. During this relationship MaCrea became a father figure, who treated [REDACTED] to dinners, outings, and other activities. [REDACTED] speculated that MaCrea might well be gay and using him for possible sexual activity, in the future. At the end of his interview he recanted a little and said he might be wrong about MaCrea's sexual orientation.

On 19 Oct 88, I was reading the boards and found a report by Det Parsells about MaCrea. Since [REDACTED] works in the station area, I removed the report since it might be seen by her. I,m sure x she would become alarmed since MaCrea has had a long relationship with her family and aspecialy with her son. I called Parsells and explained this to him. He was unaware that the report had been posted and asked me to pull it. I briefed him on this aspect of the investigation.

During the month of August I spoke with Sgt Brown about pooling any information on Macrea so that we could track his behavior, for future problems. I decided not to interview [REDACTED] until we had some information on the suspects sexual preferences. I did not feel at the time that an interview could be justified until some information such as that developed by Det Parsells, could be documented. At this time I feel an interview with [REDACTED] is warranted. I have a good relationship with him and feel that I would be able to uncover any sexual misconduct on the part of Macrea if it does exist. [REDACTED] may also have information on others youths that associate with Macrea.

On 19 Oct 88, I also learned that the suspect has a relationship with the [REDACTED] family. [REDACTED] refers to him as a family friend. She used to live in Tanglewood and recently relocated her large family to Westmoreland. Two of her sons ran away from her home and were located in Keene. Trooper Resinberg handled the matter. [REDACTED] initially said she couldn,t come and get the boys but would arrange to have Macrea pick them up for her. According to Trooper Resinberg's supervisor, he might have further information on Macrea since he refered to him as a possible pedophil.

Looking over some of the information uncovered about the suspect, he appears to gain access to young males through using an authority role. He furthers this by offering materiald rewards and social activities to further his associations with young men.

Some other factors include:

1. has had jobs dealing with youths
2. deals with young men of a particular age group
3. has had a possible history of either drug or alcohol abuse
4. associates with young males through, dinning, swimming, home movies, other activities.
5. he has been victimized by one of his young male associates who wanted to punish him for some perceived wrong.

2. Why the suspect left the church to work in a counseling program.
3. The extent of MaCrea's own drug/alcohol abuse problems
4. MaCrea's relationship with [REDACTED]
5. MaCrea's relationship with [REDACTED].

On 21 Oct 88, I called the Baltimore MD Police Department and asked them to check their records for any past employment of the suspect. They did so and did not locate any records for Gordon MacRae. They suggested I call the Baltimore County Police since the two agencies are confused with each other on occasion.

I spoke with Sgt Brown about this case and he told me [redacted] also has had contact with the suspect. [redacted] and the suspect met through the Monadnock Regional Substance Abuse service Center, where the suspect works as a counselor. I checked [redacted] file and found two reports with the suspects name in them. The first [redacted], dated 3 May 88, in which MacRae's name appears as a worker at the abuse center which was contacted by the [redacted] family for assistance with their son. The second report, [redacted], dated 13 June 88, described a domestic fight in the [redacted] home which resulted in [redacted] the house. [redacted] then went to a public phone and called MacRae at about 2200 Hours. MacRae left his home and assisted [redacted] by taking him to the Cheshire Hospital. [redacted] had sprained his ankle when jumping from a second story window. It was also noted in the file, MacRae wanted a CHIN's petition filed on [redacted], but was unwilling to have his name associated with it. He wanted a family member to sign the petition instead of him. This was not possible and Sgt Brown explained this to MacRae. From information learned recently, MacRae might have been motivated not to have his name appear, fearing information [redacted] may be in a position to reveal if he became unsettled with MacRae. This is assuming that MacRae might have something between himself and [redacted] which he does not want others privy to. [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] should all be interviewed about this suspect at this point.

WAS INTERVIEW WHEN CHARGED BY H. BROWN

I spoke with Det Parsells who said he would keep in contact with his source to develop further information on the suspect. The source was to have been with the suspect Tuesday, 18 Oct 88. He has been asked to report back to Parsells with what transpired.

On 27 Oct 88, I spoke with Trp Keys about this suspect. She had spoke with [redacted] whole's two sons had run away from their Westmoreland Home. The suspect was identified as a good friend of the family. Keys had no information about the suspect being sexually involved with either [redacted] male. However she did report of one of the best boys being with a [redacted], a known pedophile. No connection between MacCrae and this subject [redacted] could be developed other then their relationship to one of the [redacted] boys. [redacted] is from New York and his parents own a home on Spofford Lake. This home was the scene of a teenage rape in which the victim was beaten close to death with a fireplace poker.

I also spoke with Trp Reed who told me that a source of information on MacCrea could be learned from [redacted], who is presently in State Prison for an arson conviction. Reed states that [redacted] and MacCrea have had sexual relations in the past. [redacted] used to work at the Athens pizza palace here in Keene. His date of birth is [redacted]

I spoke with Trp Miles and he states he has seen the suspect in the YMCA. The suspects association with the Y isn,t known at this time. However the YMCA has attracted a number of pedophiles in the past, both as volunteers and has regular members.

I then spoke with Trp Kelly who handled a DCYS referal out of Concord regarding the suspect. The incident involved a 17 year old patient who was at Spofford Hall being treated for substance or alcohol abuse. He comes from Massachusetts. The suspect was working at Spofford Hall as a councilor. The victim reports some mutual mastorbation between himself and the suspect. The incident was reported by the victim to another staff member. However the investigation was hampered by the boys father who was concerned about his sons mental health. The incident was not pursued due to the victim being isolated from Police contact. The suspect was interviewed by Kelly and he did waive his rights agans,t his attourneys wishers and advice (Charles Donahue).

The suspect gave a story that the victim asked to see him alone about a confession. While in an office the victim exposed himself and started to masturbate. The suspect did not participate and further stated he was grabbed by the victim. The suspect also gave information on the victim so far as his sexual contact with another male patient. I have a copy of the state police report. The status of the case is closed, because of the inability to contact the victim.

In the case file is a reference to another incident in the Portsmouth area which DCYS was also involved. I placed a call to Portsmouth and asked for a youth aid officer to call us with any information they have on the suspect.

Sgt Brown arranged to get a copy of an article which appeared in the Keene Sentinel. The article featured the suspect in the Monadnock Profile section of the paper which usually comes out on Saturday. I reviewed the article and found the following items;

1. The suspect claims to have investigated juvenile crimes in Baltimore before becoming a priest.
2. The suspect had been in Keene for 2 1/2 yrs when the item appeared in the paper.
3. The suspect identified himself as an x-cop and x-alcoholic
4. The suspect grew up in the Lynn/Boston Massachusetts area.
5. The suspect majored in psychology and criminology at St Anselm college, and received a masters from St Mary's University of Baltimore, in counseling.
6. The suspect took a job in 1978 investigating missing children cases for the Baltimore County Police Department. His boss was identified as Major Patricia Hanges, who was the Director of the youth division. The article also tells about an incident in which the suspect destroyed some marijuana found on a young boy. He stated he did this to help the boy who might have otherwise gone back to reform school.
7. The suspect stated he spent 6 months in a parish that covered the Groveton/North Stratford area of New Hampshire, and later was in the Hampton area. In 1983 he was sent to Keene at St Bernards.
8. The suspect listed his position with the substance abuse center, and the Highway safety Board, and the Youth activities Board.

Portsmouth Police called back and said they had no record of arrest for the suspect. However, a check with their Youth Aid Bureau might yield some other information not recorded in their card file.

On 28 Oct 88, I called Mrs Myers who works out of the DCYS office here in Keene. I asked about the suspect and she told me Judy Henderson knew something about him but wasn't in at this time. She also told me Sylvia Gale was also working the suspect. Myers explained that Gale is a special investigator who handles sensitive cases out of the Concord office.

On 28 Oct 88, I called Sylvia Gale and spoke about the suspect. We spoke first about the Spofford Hall incident. Gale states she still might be able to speak to the victim and intends to do so. We then spoke about the Hampton incident. Gale states the incident involved the suspect being sexually involved with a young male. The actual incident took place in 1983, but wasn't seriously investigated by the Hampton Police until 1986.

Gale then told me about another incident in which MacRae had convinced a Berlan Court Judge to give him custody of a young male. The DCYS office then moved through the Courts and regained custody. The child did not alledge any sexual misconduct.

Gale then told me about some information she developed thrid hand about the suspect. The Catholic Church back in 1983 had moved the suspect from a Florida Church to Berlen New Hampshire. The reason was that the suspect was involved sexually with two boys. One of these two was murdered and his body mutilated. The case is supposed to be still unsolved. The jurisdiction of this crime has not been established at this time.

I briefed Gale on the case we have established thus far in Keene. I arranged to keep her informed. Gale also has offered her assistance in this case.

On 31 Oct 88, I was called in to followup this case. I met with Sgt Brown and we discussed the direction this case should take. Brown asked me to follow up with a subject from the Keene Sentinel who may have some information. We also discussed the merits of speaking with Sonya Pick who works with the suspect at the Monadnock Substance Abuse Center. We decided to wait on the Pick interview. Brown also suggested, I speak with David Goldsmith who works at the YMCA. Troop Miles had reported the suspect as a member.

On 31 Oct 88, I went to the YMCA and met with David Goldsmith. We met in a private office, where I told Goldsmith we were investigating Gordon MacRae regarding his relationship with adolescents. Goldsmith said he wasn't surprised and he had form this type of suspicion regarding MacRae. He went and got his membership card to ensure we were speaking about the same person, which we were. Goldsmith states he is known by everyone - the "Y". He uses the "Y" during the morning hours and plays racket ball. His partner is Bob VanBlarcom. The suspect doesn't use the "Y" to meet boys, nor does he bring boys to the "Y", as an activity place. This is according to Goldsmith. The membership card also has a place for a spouse and siblings. On MacRae card in this place is the name of [REDACTED]. He was recently added by MacRae. Goldsmith went on to explain that [REDACTED] works at the YMCA, doing some type of maintenance work. Goldsmith in the past watched the interaction of MacRae and [REDACTED] and is suspicious of them. He watched a number of times as money was exchanged from MacRae to [REDACTED]. This made him feel obligated to question [REDACTED]. He then learned MacRae is a close family friend of both [REDACTED] and his mother. The impression Goldsmith had was that MacRae and [REDACTED] are closer then just being friends. Goldsmith also was aware that pedophiles do associate closely with their marks mother or family to continue their abusive relationship. No other males are associated with MacRae when he is at the YMCA. I asked Goldsmith to keep this conversation confidential and to keep an eye on the suspect for any possible information that might assist us.

██████████ and his two sons, ██████████ and ██████████ were in the Keene District Court for an unrelated matter. Both I and Sgt Brown spoke with ██████████ in a separate room from his sons. Both ██████████ boys were identified as being associated with the suspect. Although ██████████ said he never had any suspicions of MacRae being sexual with his sone, his behavior and true motivations were unknown to him. He explained that MacRae could be considered a close family friend. The family has known the suspect from their membership in the St Bernards Church and through their sons at the time being enrolled in the St Josephs school. The school is adjacent and associated with the parish. ██████████ explained that his work is in New York and that has a result he is away from the family a great deal. He also states his family has gone through a tough finacial problem which they have finally freed themselves of. During this time the family found assistance from MacRae. ██████████ said initially MacRae was a weekly visitor to ██████████'s house. He states ██████████ is close to Macrea and his older son ██████████ is not that close to him. The closest family member to MacRae is his 12 year old son ██████████. After it was disclosed what we were investigating about MacRae, Mr ██████████ said he was always uncomfortable about what MacRae was really up to. He said MacRae would often take his sons seperately or as a group out to dinner or to the movies. He always said MacRae seemed to spend a lot of money on the boys, but at the time he didn,t question it. I asked ██████████ to reflect back on MacRae activities and recall any one incident that troubled him. He then said that ██████████ on his 14th birthdgy received a camera. That ██████████ felt it was expensive adn later priced the camera in a local store and found it sold for about $50.00. He could not understand why MacRae would spend so much on his son.

██████████ said he was more concerned about his sons dealing with a subject named ██████████. ██████████ feels he is gay and is attracted to his sons. He described ██████████ as living on Spofford Lake and who comes from Powderbridge, NY. I had come across this name before and ran a triple III on the subject with negative results.

I explained to [Redacted], that I felt an interview with his sons was merited to explore the relationship between his sons and the suspect. He agreed and was very cooperative with me. I asked him not to ask his sons any questions about MacRae and to allow the Police to ask the questions, and he would be fully briefed after the interviews.

I returned to the office and found a message from Sylvia Gale. As I waited for the [Redacted] family to arrive, I called her. I briefed Gale on what had taken place to date and what was planned. She wanted to arrange a meeting so we could compare notes on the suspect. I asked Gale about the 1983 incident which the suspect was accused of. She then told me that the male victim was an altar boy at the same church with the suspect. The victim at a young age had aspirations of becoming a priest. A relationship developed between the suspect and the victim as a result. The victim disclosed the sexual relations between himself and the suspect as a result of some type of mental breakdown. This breakdown being either the result or in part the result of the sexual abuse suffered by the victim. Gale is unsure if a law enforcement agency took part in the investigation. She did know that the suspect admitted to the sexual abuse to a high church official. That the church paid for all of the medical needs of the victim and possibly his schooling as well. The suspect as a result was transferred to Keene. No criminal charge is believed to have resulted from this incident. Gale has other information on the suspect which I will follow up on.

[REDACTED] body language at the start of the interview and throughout appeared to be open. His eye contact at first was not established and towards the end he started to look at me with glances. He first met the suspect when he was attending the St Joseph's school. MacRae according to [REDACTED] was the acting principle at the time. He recalls himself being in the second grade. I asked him the standard questions about whether the suspect ever caused him any worries and make him feel awkward at times. Before I could introduce the question of sexual touch, [REDACTED] told me, "Well Gordon's queer". I asked him how he concluded this. He said he didn't know. When questioned further about this, [REDACTED] said it was from what Gordon said, how he said it, and the time and money he spent on him and other boys his age.

[REDACTED] then interjected that [REDACTED] who sees Gordon for drug counseling came up to him in the school hallway yesterday and said something about Gordon. When asked to explain, [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] stated, "Gordon was queer". [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] he knew and no further conversation about the suspect took place. What caused the remark by [REDACTED], and how he formed this opinion is not know to [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] denies any sexual involvement with the suspect. He also denies any conversation with the suspect about any sexual subject. I asked [REDACTED] if he suspect the suspect as having been sexually active with any of his friends. He though a moment, and then gave the name of [REDACTED] (spelling). This subject is supposed to have gone through a few name changes because of family movement. He lives in Richmond, NH at this time. [REDACTED] explained that [REDACTED] knew MacRae and that at one point he didn't want to be around him any longer and acted odd when caught in his presence. [REDACTED] stated he asked [REDACTED] "What are you and Gordon queering out with each other". [REDACTED] then denied any sexual involvement. [REDACTED] states he believes the denial. I asked [REDACTED] if I asked him the same question, how would he respond if was indeed, being abused.

I asked ██████ about the camera he was given by the suspect. He said it was for his birthday and that he picked it out. The cost being about $40:00 The reason Gordon gave such an expensive gift isn,t known to ██████. He countered with the fact that Gordon gave something to ██████ for his birthday as well. He then described other money spent by the suspect on him and his brothers and other males his age. The suspect would pick the boys up alone or together and take them to dinner. The boys would select the restraurant such as McDonalds, Friendlies, or what ever they choose. ██████ recalls one incident in which he selected a place called ^{Chuck E.} ~~Chunky~~ Cheese which is located in Manchester. Without hesitation, Gordon took him.

I asked ██████ about receiving any money from the suspect. He told me that he and another subject who he doesn,t know, worked for MacRae at the Monadnock Substance Abuse center. He moved furniture and other work at the Center for pay. I later learned from another subject that ██████ has received cash from MacRae as well as other gifts which he did not speak about with me.

I asked ██████ about being alone with the suspect. He recalls two or three times he was alone in the suspects vehicle, Such as driving to school. I asked [REDACTED] about going to the suspects home and he said he has been there 2 or 3 times, but added he has always been there with others. He described one of these visits as his being there with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. That they watched television and the suspect was there as well. Nothing note worthey was reported as having occured. I asked whether he has every slept over there and he said he alone with his brother [REDACTED] did so about three weekends ago. The suspect was there as well as the suspects brother. He was visiting possibly from Brattleboro and is approximately 21 years old according to [REDACTED]. I checked the Monadnock Profile article on the suspect and found no reference to a brother. The brothers age is estimated at 21 and the suspect is 35, not that it isn,t possible for him to have a brother this age. [REDACTED] added that the suspects brother is presently going out with a former teacher of his. [REDACTED] said he arrived at 0100 in the morning and stayed the night. He states no alcohol or drugs have been used by him in the use and their use is never sanctioned by the suspect. No alcohol has ever been seen by [REDACTED] in the suspects home.

I again returned to the subject about [REDACTED] believing that Gordon is gay. He further explained by saying it was from the way he acts which is very different then the way his father behaves. Also the amount of time he spents with kids. I asked if Gordon was the type of guy that touches a lot and he said he wasn,t. He could recall ~~any~~ only one incident in which he struck MacRae to the stomach jokingly and MacRae in turn messed up his hair. Other then that he can,t recall ever being touched by the suspect.

[REDACTED] also knows [REDACTED] and I asked him to tell me what he though about him and his relationship to MacRae. [REDACTED] said the suspect spends a great deal of time with [REDACTED] that their together all the time, and that [REDACTED] isn,t interested in girls.

[REDACTED] also said he knows a couple of kids who are receiving counseling from the suspect. These are [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED].

After speaking with [REDACTED], I spoke his older brother [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] explained that his relationship to the suspect is limited as compared to his other brothers. He mentioned going out for ice cream with the suspect and that his brothers were along as well. [REDACTED] was asked about being at the suspects home. He said he was there once last winter and watched some TV. He added others were there at the time and he wasn't at the suspects home alone. A movie was rented called, "Lethal Weapon". He recalled his brother [REDACTED] being there and that [REDACTED] stopped in for a while as well. [REDACTED] was asked about the suspect and his brother [REDACTED] and had nothing to add, other than what was already known.

[REDACTED] states he never thought of the suspect as gay. He mentioned a subject named [REDACTED] who he called a bisexual. He said he knows he is gay because he threw a pass at one of his friends. His friend was staying the night at [REDACTED] and was approached while he was sleeping. [REDACTED] later claimed the boy must have had hallucination. [REDACTED] still sees [REDACTED] and has no problems being seen in public with him. [REDACTED] states [REDACTED] has never thrown any passes at him.

[REDACTED] was asked about other youths associated with the suspect. Besides those already known, he named [REDACTED] as a friend of the suspect. [REDACTED] did not know where this subject lives, but gave his age at approximately 15 years old. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] has made some noise about Gordon being gay.

I asked [REDACTED] where the suspect would take him and his brothers. He mentioned the small golf course on Rt#12 in Swanzey, and local restraunts. and the movies. I asked [REDACTED] why MacRae would do this, and he said he didn't know, maybe he was just trying to be nice.

I ended the interview asking [REDACTED] if he would speak with his brother [REDACTED] about whether Gordon has ever made any pass(s) or has had relations with him. I stressed the importance of this situation not going unaddressed. He said he would make the attempt and get back to me if anything was developed.

After speaking with both boys, I met briefly with [REDACTED] to report to him that no admissions of sexual involvement took place. That the behavior of the suspect with his sons was very suspect and whether his sons continue a relationship with the suspect or not was a family decision. I asked him to speak with his wife and then decide which was best for the two boys and the rest of the family. He also said his wife [REDACTED] is close to their son [REDACTED] and that he would be asked about any possible sexual acts or suggestions he might have received from the suspect.

I called Det Fox who works with the Youth Aid section of the Baltimore County Police Department. The department has 1,800 sworn officers. The officer I spoke with did not know the suspect but said other older police officers in the unit recall him and were very interested in what has been developed. I read the newspaper clipping about the suspects police history. The detective told me that the suspect never was a sworn police officer and had no powers of arrest. He was in the youth aid bureau as an intern while he was going through the seminary. His job was as a counselor for both abuse and incorrigible victims. The years of service were for 1980-81 and not the 1978 as written in the article. Although the article never actually states that the suspect was a police officer, the implication is clear, and at the least a lie through omission. Det Fox wanted a copy of our report so that subjects who had past contact could be interviewed for any possible abuse.

On 31 Oct 88, I went to the County Jail to speak with [REDACTED]. I had left an earlier message on his answering machine at his residence hoping to speak with him before he went to work. [REDACTED] works at the County jail as a guard and is the father of [REDACTED] who has known and still visits with the suspect. After developing information on the suspect, I wanted to arrange for a meeting. I explained to [REDACTED] about the suspect. I did not refer to any information on the suspect which has not been confirmed such as the Florida lead. [REDACTED] was taken back by the information that I gave him because he realized the possible implication. He then stated that his son has known the suspect since he was nine years old. That [REDACTED] goes places with the suspect and has been alone with him a number of times over the last couple of years. [REDACTED] with the information I gave him on the suspect, stated he has always felt something about the suspects true motivation for being with [REDACTED]. However he could never quite put his finger on what it was. [REDACTED] also started to recall that the suspect would give him gifts which were expensive and also the amount of money he must have spent taking [REDACTED] to movies, dinner, and other activities. [REDACTED] openly speculated that he had no idea if [REDACTED] could be coerced or somehow tricked into sexual contact with the suspect.

I apologized for having to break the news to [REDACTED] while he was at work. I told him I had wanted to speak to both him and his wife while they were together and at home. He stated he understood and he appreciated being told as soon as possible. I then arranged with [REDACTED] for him to bring his son to the Police Station on 1 Nov 88, at 1500 Hours for an interview. I suggested strongly that [REDACTED] not be questioned beforehand by the parents. I cautioned [REDACTED] that when a parent questions a child reference to this type of problem that the conversation can quickly turn accusatory and thus the participants become adversaries. He understood this and said he would have his son at the station at the appointed time. I tried to leave [REDACTED] with the thought that some philes have a meaningful and nonsexual relationship with some boys to legitimize their self esteem and that possibly [REDACTED] was this subject.

On 1 Nov 88, [REDACTED] said he was traveling to the Lake Shore hospital located in Manchester, NH to transport [REDACTED] back to Keene for a court appearance. [REDACTED] has a CHIN petition that was up for review. I decided to go along so that I could interview [REDACTED] regarding this matter.

We arrived the hospital around 1030 and collected [REDACTED]. He appeared to be in good spirits and thrilled about the prospect of smoking at will. The hospital has a number of rules which [REDACTED] feels are too restrictive and he was watching the clock in anticipation of our arrival.

Once in the car [REDACTED] was asked about his treatment and some other forms of treatment that he has received during the last year. The conversation then swung around to MacRae.

The first time [REDACTED] met the suspect was in either May or June of this year. [REDACTED] was at a friend's house and having some trouble with his drug problem. The mother of this friend called the Monadnock Substance abuse center. The counselor who [REDACTED] spoke with over the phone was Gordon MacRae. The suspect asked [REDACTED] a number of questions including his age and present whereabouts. The suspect then arranged to meet with [REDACTED] at the home he was calling from. After picking up [REDACTED] the suspect took him to McDonalds for some food. From McDonalds the suspect took [REDACTED] to his office. After being in the office after a while, he started to feel the need to go to the hospital and was taken there by MacRae. [REDACTED] explained that he was flipping out from the drugs. Arrangements were then made by MacRae to get [REDACTED] admitted to the Lake Shore Hospital. [REDACTED] stated that the suspect told him that if he needed anything, all he had to do was call. Shortly after, [REDACTED] called and requested clothing. The suspect bought [REDACTED] a pair of pants and some socks. The suspect not only bought [REDACTED] the items but took them to him at the Keene Hospital. The suspect also spoke with [REDACTED] a number of times on the phone.

██████████ explained that the first time he met the suspect he was given his card and the suspect wrote his home number on the back and his beeper number. When ██████████ called the suspect from the hospital he did so collect. The suspect told ██████████ each time to only call his office collect and not his home. From the money the suspect throws around with teens, I don't think he was worried about the phone bill, but worried about documentation of the phone calls. This is speculation on my part.

██████████ went to the Monadnock Substance abuse center once for counseling. However he didn't see the suspect but spoke with a woman.

██████████ went on to explain further about his relationship with the suspect. ██████████ said when he needed money all he had to do was call the suspect. The suspect would then show up where ██████████ had arranged to meet him. The money was given over and ██████████ never had to make any promises to pay it back. The amount of money was usually five dollars though he did recall getting ten at one time. ██████████ estimates he got $50.00 from the suspect over the summer. I asked ██████████ how he knew he could get away with this. He stated ██████████ knows the guy and had told him about him being an easy touch for money and gifts. ██████████ explained that he just used him for money. I asked him if I was to ask Gordon if they were friends, what would he say. ██████████ said he would probably think so but he just called the guy to get money and things from him. ██████████ also explained that he met with the suspect at the Colony Mill. ██████████ was also there and they met in the cafe area of the Mill. ██████████ mentioned his fines which needed to be paid and MacRae took both boys to his bank and drew out the $65.00 necessary and gave it to ██████████ MacRae according to ██████████ told ██████████ it was a gift and didn't need to be repaid.

██████████ explained that he has never been to the suspects home but does know where he lives. He states the suspect gave him the offer of coming over any time he wanted. This was to include the staying the night if need be. ██████████ stated he never did so, but that he called at 0400 Hrs one time and asked him if it would be all right to come over. MacRae stated to ██████████ that it wasn't, and ██████████ hung up.

[REDACTED] explained that the suspect seemed weird to him but never came on to him sexually. [REDACTED] said he continued the relationship for the money. Looking back on it he says it always seemed odd that the guy would do so much and not ask for something in return. [REDACTED] feels as if the suspect may not have been attracted to him and thus didn't make any sexual passes at him. I asked if his friend [REDACTED] ever voiced any concerns about the suspect and sexual advances. [REDACTED] said he couldn't recall any conversations like that. [REDACTED] stated things got to the point where he would call the suspect from the Monadnock High school and say he needed a ride to Keene. The suspect would show up and do it with no hassle. [REDACTED] also explained that he was always taken out to dinner and lunch by the suspect. He described places like Papa Gino's and McDonalds. That when they went to dinner or lunch they would always be alone. He also said he would attend AA meetings all the time. The suspect on one night took [REDACTED] Steve to an AA meeting at the Antioch College. The night was especially for youths.

I asked [REDACTED] what his present relationship was with the suspect. He stated he had called him last Thursday 27 Oct 88, and had tentatively arranged for him to visit him at the hospital for Wednesday 2 Nov 88. However [REDACTED] states the suspect has not called back to confirm the date.

I asked about other youths involved with MacRae. [REDACTED] then gave me the names already mentioned. He also mentioned [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said that especially [REDACTED] was very close to the suspect, and hung around with him a great deal.

[REDACTED] also said the suspect associated with his parents a couple of times and they walked away thinking and believing he was a great guy.

█ was at the office with his father at 1440 HRS. I prepared an interview room and asked for █ to come to the room. He was very nervous and apprehensive. I told him he wasn't in any trouble at all and that he should relax. He said that all his father told him was that they were going to the Police station and that he should tell the truth. I had asked the father to tell █ that we were going to have a review on a rock throwing incident which occurred earlier in the year. I didn't want █ to have to have to fear the unknown, which turned out to be the case. I seated him and relaxed him the best I could.

I introduced the subject by using the incident in which █ from Swanzey was arrested and later convicted on child abuse. I asked █ to recall how nice the guy was and what a surprise it was to learn what he was truly all about. He recalled the man and said he had a hard time believing he would do something like that.

I then told █ I wanted to speak to him about another person in his life who may also be different than what he appears. I then mentioned the name of Gordon MacRae. I then explained to █ that I knew a lot about Gordon and that what he has been told in the past by him was either embellished or just untrue. I told █ that I suspected that possibly Gordon has made him feel uncomfortable in the past and that I wanted to discuss those incidents. From the body language change and the color of █'s face it seemed obvious that something was going to be said.

I then changed the pace for a second and asked █ to list the reasons why he liked Gordon. He gave the following reasons;

1. Nice to talk to.
2. Understanding
3. helps others
4. spends a lot of time with him.

I then asked [REDACTED] to tell me from the beginning, how he met the suspect and about their relationship. He said he was nine when he first met Gordon. He was at St Bernards with another kid his age named [REDACTED]. It was in the winter time and they went into the rectory. [REDACTED] knew Gordon and introduced [REDACTED] to Gordon. On this first meeting Gordon asked [REDACTED] to lunch and they went to Papa Gino's for pizza. [REDACTED] can't recall whether [REDACTED] went along or not. A pattern was then established with [REDACTED] stopping by the rectory to see Gordon after Sunday mass. [REDACTED] recalls that he would spend the afternoon with him and that Gordon would always have to get back by 1700 for some type of church meeting. Most of the activities engaged by the two were, going for ice cream, going for pizza, going for long drives, and occasionally going to martinee movies. [REDACTED] recalled some of these movies as Superman and ET.

This pattern continued until he reached age 11. Once 11 he saw more and more of Gordon. He said he would go out to eat more with him more and estimated that he saw him 2 or 3 times a week. He also stated his parents interacted with Gordon and used him as a support beam regarding family problems. Some of these family problems dealt with [REDACTED] and his adjustment of [REDACTED] as a step father. [REDACTED] real father is a career man in the Army who was out of the picture when [REDACTED] reached age three. When [REDACTED] was 13 he traveled to another state and visited with his dad. He was discouraged and confused over this visit, since his father paid little attention to him. His father never writes and [REDACTED] has a hard time dealing with the desertion and lack of care of his biological father. [REDACTED] also said he would call Gordon about his problems and that these calls started when he was 10 and half or 11 years old.

[REDACTED] recalls that starting at about age 11 and half Gordon would put his arm around him when he drove. He would rub his neck as they drove along. Also when watching movies in the suspects home and while seated together on the couch, the suspect would pull [REDACTED] closer to him and have his arm around him. I asked [redacted] what his last contact with the suspect was. He states that on Friday 28 Oct 88, they spoke on the phone and [redacted] arranged for a ride to the dance with Gordon. However plans changed and [redacted] called cancelling the ride.

I asked [redacted] what other things did the suspect allow him to do while they were together. He said Gordon would allow him to operate his car in the Markems Parking lot.

I then as I did throughout the interview attempted to make sure that [redacted] was being truthful about whether or not he had been coerced into sexual contact. He states no he was never tricked into it. I explained to him how confusing it can be to have a pleasurable experience with positive rewards, and by my asking that it be disclosed, how all of this could cause apprehension in speaking the ~~truth~~ truth. He assured me that nothing happened. His body language appeared to indicate that he was being candid, however its impossible to be sure.

I then asked [redacted] into the office. [redacted] had asked me to explain what had taken place to him. One point being why [redacted] didn,t tell his parents. I had asked him this and he said it was because he felt he could handle it, was reluctant to speak with his parents about sexual matters, and that he enjoys being more and more independant.

[redacted] also told me that the suspect is either employed or doing volunteer work at the County Jail. He calls [redacted] at the jail weekly and schedules meetings with inmates. [redacted] was unaware if the suspect is paid or not. I asked him to speak with [redacted] and to have [redacted] call me regarding this issue.

I asked [redacted] to have [redacted] write out a paper describing everything he can thing of th regards to his experiences with the suspect.

Interview out at 1640 HRS

On 2 Nov 88, I arranged to meet with Helen White who works at the Keene High School as a guidance counselor. She has [redacted] as one of her clients. I briefly told her about this investigation and wanted to know if [redacted] had mentioned the suspect to her. She stated he didn't say anything to her about him. [redacted] and [redacted] appeared to be open with each other and I felt he might have told her about some mishap with MacRae. I then arranged with [redacted] to have [redacted] brought down to her office for a short interview. He came down and [redacted] left us alone in her office.

I assured [redacted] he wasn't in trouble and that I was interested in speaking to him about a subject named Gordon MacRae. He then said, "Oh that queer". I asked [redacted] when was the first time he ever met the suspect. He said he was with [redacted] and they had met him at the Colony Mill. [redacted] explained that he needed some money and discussed it with MacRae. That even after never meeting each other before MacRae took [redacted] and [redacted] to his bank and used his automatic teller card to give [redacted] the needed $66.00 for the fine. [redacted] states the fine was for driving without a license. I later checked with the court and found that [redacted] paid the fine with cash on 7-7-88. [redacted] stated that MacRae said nothing at the time about paying the money back. After at least a month if not more [redacted] states he called MacRae again for money. He stated MacRae had given him his card and wrote his home phone number down on the back. [redacted] said he still knew the number and spouted off [redacted]. He looked at a telephone when he recalled the number. I asked him why and he said by looking at the keys he can recall the number by the way its dialed. I later checked and found it was an easy way to remember the number.

When [redacted] called MacRae about more money, MacRae told [redacted], "Their must be some way to earn money" [redacted] didn't get it at first and started to mention things jokingly like robbing a bank and other such things. From the flow of the conversation [redacted] said he realized what MacRae was hinting at. MacRae then remarked, "Well when you think about something, call me back".

After speaking with [Redacted] I received a call from him in which he told me that ⁸⁷⁸⁰

[Redacted] secretary also had some additional information about the suspect.

I then spoke with [Redacted] She states she has met Gordon MacRae at an xmas party given in the home of [Redacted] who lives on [Redacted]. She then told me that the suspect was sexually involved with a then Keene High student named [Redacted]. She knows he isn't a student any longer in Keene, and believes he went away to college. She thinks he is 19 years old at this time. The matter so far as she knows was never investigated by either the Police or DCYS and or any agency. The victim had gone to MacRae for counseling and was coerced into a sexual relationship.

I ran a name search through the computer and found the following:

[Redacted Name Search Results]

On 2 Nov 88, I received a call from Det Waudell of the Hampton Police Department. He researched the files and found a case report of the incident involving our suspect in his town. He said the incident occurred in 1983 and was dealt with at that time by DCYS worker, Marglyn Frazier. At that time the incident was found to be founded. The victim at the time of the sexual assault was 14 years old. He later disclosed the abuse again in 1986 to a psychologist who thought the abuse was recent and who reported the matter back to DCYS. The parents contacted the Hampton Police Department and spoke with Det Waudell. They wanted him to re investigate the case because they were very disturbed over the way the catholic church handled the manner and wanted to sue them. DCYS sent a letter to Waudell at the time telling him no fresh investigation was needed. The matter was resolved in 1983 with the suspect having a treatment plan approved by the Attourney Generals office. The Cheshire County Attourneys office was then notified since the treatment and residency of the suspect would be in the Keene area. A copy of the case report will be sent by Hampton PD.
